

FRANCOPHONIE FESTIVAL – MARCH 2020
DRAWING CONTEST

Open to students in grades 1 to 8, this year's edition of the drawing contest focuses on La Fontaine's Fables.

Written in the 17th century, La Fontaine's Fables are classics of French literature and are still learnt by heart at school.

La Fontaine's Fables are distinguished by the lightness and humor in the narration giving a voice to animals to convey social morals.

Participation requirements

- Learn French
- Drawings must be individual : one student per drawing
- To ensure uniformity, drawings must be made on a letter-format paper with colored pencils
- On the back of the drawing, indicate the student's name, grade and school, the teacher's name and the number of years of French language learning

STUDENTS IN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL (GRADES 1-5)

1. Choose one fable : « La Cigale et la Fourmi », « Le Corbeau et le Renard » or « Le Lion et le Rat »
2. At school or at home illustrate La Fontaine's fable
3. Add a short description : one or two lines

STUDENTS IN MIDDLE SCHOOL (GRADES 6-8)

1. Choose one fable : « La Cigale et la Fourmi », « Le Corbeau et le Renard » or « Le Lion et le Rat »
2. Turn the text into comics: 6 frames minimum. Use the document with already-drawn frames.
3. Don't forget speech bubbles, your characters have a voice.

SEND US YOUR DRAWING BEFORE MONDAY, MARCH 16

Consulat Général de France à Atlanta
Anne-Lise Gallay - Concours de dessin Francophonie
3399 Peachtree RD NE #500, ATLANTA, GA 30326

Winners will be announced on our website (<http://www.francophonieatlanta.org/>) and the prizes ceremony will be held on March 29 at Westside Warehouse during the closing of this year's Francophonie festival.